Dear Noelia,

On behalf of the Southeastern Chapter of the American Association of Law Libraries, I thank you and your staff for arranging the wonderful trip to Ponce. It was a highlight of the meeting for me.

I always enjoy getting out of the large cities when I travel. The Ponce art museum was lovely and the trolley tour was fun. The visit to the castle were very interesting and the view of the gardens and Ponce was terrific. We enjoyed the craft fair and everyone bought things to take home. The boardwalk was a great finish to the day - so lively and great for people watching. It was a great visit! I know that all of us enjoyed it.

You and your staff treated us to gracious hospitality. We appreciated the opportunity to talk to them and hear more about Ponce. My co-worker, Georgia Chadwick, told me that the sangria was the best thing to drink she had during her whole visit to Puerto Rico! We would love to have the recipe, if possible.

Please thank your staff for arranging the event, hosting the group and working on Saturday. I'm glad we have some idea why you say Ponce es Ponce.

Muchismas gracias.

Sincerely,

Catherine Lemann
